

Mawlana Jalaluddin Mohammad Balkhi University

Job descriptions of Duties of the Discipline Committee

1. Bribery, embezzlement, rape, illegal use of position, theft and other criminal acts are acts that, in addition to entrusting it to the judicial authorities of the country, can cause temporary or permanent expulsion of a person from the academic environment.
2. Personal assault, sexual harassment, insults and disruption of scientific, social and cultural ceremonies and programs.
3. Violation of the principles, procedures, bills, rules and regulations of the university.
4. Disruption of teaching, research, management and administrative order.
5. Threatening and putting pressure on others or any action that endangers the physical and mental health, personal safety of others in the university.
6. Incitement to ethnic, linguistic and sectarian prejudices.
7. Sale, use or transportation of drugs, alcohol or anything dangerous intoxicants, gambling and illegal games in the university environment.
8. Having, selling, transporting and distributing any kind of weapons, incendiary materials, explosives or having anything that can be used as a weapon or anything dangerous that has been declared legally prohibited, in the university environment.
9. Disruptive acts and disobeying the legal guidelines of university officials in performing their duties.
10. Abuse of scientific and intellectual works of other authors, such as: quoting all or part of the works of others in their own name in preparing homework, writing articles, monographs, dissertations, master's and doctoral dissertations, or writing textbooks and preparation curriculum.
- 11- Any kind of fabrication and fraud and loss of rights in the results of exams, seizure of official documents, modification or conversion of subject scores (intentional reduction or addition), fabrication in the signature of university officials, and other actions for the purpose of gaining points and use They are used illegally.
- 12- Forgery of documents, deception, fraud and deception of documents or unauthorized use of university documents and equipment for the purpose of misuse.
  - 1- Any action and act of quoting such as exchanging questions with others, before or during the exam or transfer The secrecy and secrecy of technical and telecommunications equipment and publications for the purpose of quoting to another person, so that someone else may try.
  - 2- Attending an exam on behalf of another person or allowing another person to take the exam on behalf of another person.
  - 3- Illegal use of computer and electronic devices for the purpose of obtaining information relating to a particular university or individual. The offender will be disciplined according to the seriousness of the violation and the repetition of the following. Recommendation for warning, temporary discount, transfer and expulsion from study and duty for the approval of the Scientific Council of the Institute.